£30,480

Our most recent Ofsted report (2019) says "From the moment you enter the school, it is clear that leaders are passionate about improving the life chances for the pupils in their care. They use their knowledge of families and the local community, planning an engaging educational programme". Our EYFS provision is "a centre of excellence". We are a rapidly improving school and "Leaders are reviewing and further developing the ambitious educational programme on offer. They are supporting subject leaders to improve the plan for what pupils should learn. Staff are positive about the support they receive from leaders."

Kender is a popular, successful and caring school that serves children from the local New Cross area. We have a broad and exciting curriculum with strong cross-curricular links, supported by specialists in Art, PE and Music, which enthuses and engages our lovely children. We are a play based EYFS that plan in the moment and are fully responsive to our children's needs. As a result of relocation, we are looking for a newly qualified teacher to join our collaborative and enthusiastic team.

- Do you want to work with our successful and collegiate teaching team?
- Do you love teaching?
- Do you have high expectations of yourself and of the children in your care?
- Do you have the drive and ambition to make learning irresistible?
- Are you interested in a school set in varied grounds with chickens, forest school and leading innovative play strategies?

If so, you could be the teacher we are looking for – flexible enough to meet the needs of all learners and driven to ensure their success. You will be able to ensure the progress of your own class, working collaboratively with other staff and bringing the commitment to really inspire our children and ensure best outcomes for them all.

Why is our oversubscribed school so special?

- Our happy and enthusiastic children really want to learn and achieve
- Our school community is diverse and friendly
- Our supportive staff team are committed to providing the best opportunities for our children
- Our parents want their children to enjoy school and learning
- You will have the full support of our SLT and our open and reflective approach to improvement
- We are committed to sustained professional development and support where every teacher has a voice
- We have a fantastic and improving building and facilities with excellent transport links
