The Natural World – statutory unit

What this unit contains	This unit involves pupils in investigating patterns, rhythms in nature, change, growth and the cycle of life. It provides an opportunity to experience awe and wonder as pupils reflect on attitudes to life, living things and the world. Through this unit pupils are introduced to the belief that whilst some people believe the world was a wonderful accident, people of many faiths, and specifically Jews, Christians and Muslims, believe a Creator God, designed the world. Content includes Jewish and Christian beliefs about God as a Creator, responsibility for living things on the planet as a response to this belief, harvest thanksgivings and St Francis as an example of living a life in response to these beliefs. Islamic beliefs about Allah, the Creator of all things and people as the custodians of the earth.
Where the unit fits and how it builds upon previous learning	The unit should be taught at the start of term 1 in Year 1. It introduces pupils to beliefs in Judaism, Christianity and Islam, incorporating content from the appropriate sections of the syllabus. Throughout the unit pupils should be encouraged to notice change in the world around them – in the weather, in plant life around the school, in themselves and in seeds/bulbs that can be grown in class. If possible they should be encouraged to care for creatures, for example feeding fish or birds.
Extension activities and further thinking	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Explore and respond to Christian images of creation from works of art from different periods. For example Michelangelo’s images of the Creator and His creation in the Sistine chapel. • Find out what other members of the school community believe about how the world began • Discuss elements of the natural world which may at first seem unappealing and consider their place in the greater scheme of things (snakes, spiders, slugs in the garden). • Discuss other beliefs about origins held by members of the class.

The Natural World – statutory unit

Pupils should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • know that the world contains many beautiful natural things, all of which are unique; • consider that life is special and transient; • consider beliefs about origins. 	✓	Before the lesson prepare a collection of items from different natural environments, e.g. water, land, air. Have items derived from the natural world e.g. oil, wool, feathers, eggshells, stones, shells, seedpods, leaves, plants. ✓ Talk to the class about one object from the collection. How many different words can they suggest to describe the item? Do they know what it is and where it comes from? Introduce them to the idea that although there may be many similar items in the world, each one is unique. ✓ Distribute items so each pupil has one. Look closely at it and think of words to describe. Ask them: Is it dead or alive? Was it ever alive? Did anything ever live on or in it? What does it feel like? Smell like? Who made this object? Who made the first example of this object? ✓ Talk about the fact that some people in the world believe that everything was made by a Creator (maker) God whilst others believe the world began from a large explosion in space. ✓ Using a range of art materials encourage pupils to draw or paint their special item. Label pictures. ✓ Plenary Ask the class where the birds are that grew the feathers or the creatures that lived in the shells? Share outcomes of the lesson and display.	Resources Items for natural world display. Art materials – pastels, chalks, paints and a range of brushes, Paper of different colours, grades and sizes. Throughout the unit pupils should be encouraged to notice change in the world around them – in the weather, in plant life around the school, in themselves and in seeds/bulbs that you can grow in class. Session 2. Key Question: What do Jews and Christians believe about the creation of the world?

The Natural World – statutory unit

Learning objectives	A T 1	A T 2	Suggested teaching activities	Sensitivities, points to note, resources
Pupils should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • know that Jews and Christians believe that the world was created by God; • know that Jews and Christians believe that people have a responsibility to care for God’s creation; • consider the need to care for the planet today; • know about conservation projects to support wildlife or the natural environment; • support the local environment and become involved in the work of the school council. 	✓ ✓ ✓	✓ ✓ ✓ ✓	Watch a video or read a version of the Jewish/ Christian Creation story. As a class sequence the steps of creation and focus on the repetition of ‘it was good’. Talk about the responsibilities given to Adam and Eve in caring for the garden and naming the animals. How might they have felt? Show pupils images of creatures from around the world – can they recognise them? Do they know their names? Reflect on the way that Adam and Eve had so many names to choose. Do pupils know where in the world animals live? Explain that some creatures are finding it hard to live and people are trying to help them to survive. Show pupils information about a conservation charity and link to human responsibilities as carers for the world. How might Adam and Eve feel about this project? This lesson could link to local conservation work or the need for it in and around the school grounds. Groups of pupils could formulate rules for caring for part of the school grounds. The class could then decide which rules are the best and make a class list and some posters to encourage others to keep the rules. They could take this work to the school council as a proposition for the school to consider following or developing.	Resources Video / DVD: Creation Stories – Quest, Channel 4 (www.tts-group.co.uk/quest-creation-stories-dvd/1004017.html) Christian creation story retold. e.g. The Creation by James Weldon Johnson – https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=jehhUNgXUBY Images of creatures from around the world including large, small, nocturnal, reptiles, mammals, fish, birds. Session 5. Key Question: What do Muslims believe about the creation of the world?

Learning objectives	A T 1	A T 2	Suggested teaching activities	Sensitivities, points to note, resources
Pupils should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • know that Muslims believe Allah is the Creator of all things; • know that Muslims respect and appreciate everything that Allah created and believe that people are the custodians of the earth; • know that many Muslims do not draw human beings or creatures. 	✓ ✓ ✓ ✓ ✓	    ✓	Show pupils the star and crescent symbol and explain that in this lesson they are going to find out about what Muslims believe about where everything in the world came from. Watch the part of the first Islam programme from the Pathways of Belief video that explains about Muslim beliefs about creation. Afterwards draw out the new vocabulary that pupils have encountered and clarify their understanding. Show pupils the beautiful images inspired by nature that can be found in the Muslim world. Explain that many Muslims believe that humans should not be drawn or produced in other art media but that respect is shown to Allah’s creation and it is celebrated in many decorative ways. Explain that Muslims thank Allah for His wonderful creation. Show pupils the prayer mat and explain that this is often used to kneel on during prayer, to provide a clean place to pray. Assessment task Either draw flowers or plants from around the class/ school or do bark or leaf rubbings and use these to make small paper prayer mats that show how much Muslims recall Allah’s creation and thank Him in their prayers. Label to explain what Muslims believe about creation and display outcomes.	Resources Notes to Teachers: The use of the star and crescent symbol in this lesson is to make clear to pupils that during this lesson they are learning about the Muslim faith. This is not a universally accepted symbol of Islam.

Session 6. Key Question: How should we care for the world?

Learning objectives	A T 1	A T 2	Suggested teaching activities	Sensitivities, points to note, resources
Pupils should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • reflect on attitudes to life, living things and the world; • identify living things in the environment that they can care for and protect; • recognise their roles and responsibilities in caring for the world. 	✓	✓	Consider how pupils feel when they have made something that they are proud of. How do they feel if someone spoils or damages it? Design an area of the school that can be either part of the natural world or can incorporate part of the natural world and can be used for quiet reflection. This could be a focus about how special the world is or can be used as a memory garden or a place where people can go if they want to think about something. This could link to Islamic beliefs about the garden of Paradise. If making a garden area is not possible, you might develop some tubs or window boxes or even set up a bird table to help the local birds. Make up a code of conduct for that area. How could it best be shared with others/kept in a good state? Link to Jewish, Christian and Muslim beliefs and explain that other faiths and beliefs have different stories to explain how the world began. Take proposals to the school council.	Resources Materials for design project. Throughout the unit pupils should be encouraged to notice change in the world around them – in the weather, in plant life around the school, in themselves and in seeds / bulbs that you can grow in class. If possible, they should be encouraged to care for creatures, for example feeding fish or birds.

Belonging / Who am I?

What this unit contains	In this unit pupils draw on their understanding of what it means to belong, and then relate it to how children are given a sense of belonging in four religions: Christianity, Islam, Hinduism and Sikhism. Pupils investigate how children are welcomed into different religions. They think about how people show they belong and what is special for them about belonging.
Where the unit fits and how it builds upon previous learning	This unit should be taught as an optional unit in KS1. It includes a focus on elements from the local Agreed Syllabus on symbol and dress. Through this unit pupils will focus on a number of Key Questions and begin to deepen the knowledge they have already gained from their life experiences, and begin to build on their depth and knowledge of understanding of peoples' lives within each faith or belief to support the curriculum at KS2.
Extension activities and further thinking	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Complete a piece of writing about what it means to belong to a religion they have studied or another faith or belief to which they belong themselves. • Write about what it feels like to not belong and how people should help someone who is lonely. • Consider why people who believe in a faith come together in groups to worship and share

Right and Wrong

What this unit contains	This optional unit provides an opportunity to consider what pupils consider as right and wrong behaviour and how this relates to living in groups. Pupils should talk about rules and their necessity for living in a group. They should share their feelings about saying sorry and talk about how they feel when others apologise to them. Pupils should consider what forgiveness means and talk about their readiness to forgive. They should think about the common values of different faiths and beliefs in relation to rules about behaviour towards others, making sure children appreciate that you do not need to be a member of a faith to have a moral outlook to life. The unit includes: Jewish and Christian beliefs about God’s Ten Commandments, particularly the two greatest Commandments, loving God and loving your neighbour and stories about Jesus teaching and demonstrating these. Buddhism: The teaching of the Buddha about how to live. The importance of being kind, generous, truthful, loving, helpful and patient through the story of the Lion and the Jackal from the Jataka tales. Understanding that Buddhists believe that actions have consequences. Or Islam: The importance of respect for self and others. Honesty and kindness. Story of Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) and the Old Testament demonstrating the commandments of Prophet Muhammad (pbuh).
Where the unit fits and how it builds upon previous learning	This optional unit should be taught at the start of term 1 in Year 2 if chosen. It introduces pupils to beliefs in Judaism, Christianity, Buddhism and Islam.

Is it important that there they are punished? If so, why? Think about each of the scenarios acted out. Should wrong behaviour be forgiven if the children involved are sorry? Should there still be a punishment if children have apologised? Get pairs of children to act out one of the scenarios again, but this time the child who has broken the rules either agrees or refuses to say sorry. SESSION 3

A child is helping to sharpen pencils in the classroom during morning play. After writing on the flipchart the teacher turns around and catches the child putting a rubber from someone else's pencil case into his or her own pocket. What should the teacher do?

Two children have a fight in the cloakroom. The teacher breaks up the fight up and asks other children in the class if they saw who started it? One child sticks up for his or her friend and says that the other child started it by pushing their friend over as he was getting his coat. The teacher finds out that this is not true. What should the teacher do?

The Ten Commandments for children

Right and Wrong

The first commandment is to put God first. This means that nothing should be more important than God - a hobby you enjoy, tv or computer games, even your friends and family should not be more important than God.

The second commandment is to worship only God. This is like the first commandment in that people following this commandment should not bow down and worship a statue.

The third commandment is to use God's name with respect. Many people use God's name like a swear word, or say it when they're upset. God asked people to use His name when we're talking to Him, or talking about Him in a nice way.

The fourth commandment is to remember God's Sabbath. God wanted people to take one day of the week and rest. When God made the world in six days, He rested on the seventh day.

The fifth commandment was to respect parents.

The sixth commandment says don't hurt others.

The seventh commandment is for those who are married and tells people to be faithful to their partner in marriage.

The eighth commandment is don't steal. This means that we shouldn't take something that doesn't belong to us.

The ninth commandment is don't lie.

The tenth commandment is don't be envious of others. This means that people shouldn't wish to have things that someone else has.

Right and Wrong

The Two Greatest Commandments

And he said to him, ‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment.

And a second is like it; You shall love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the law and the prophets.’

The Story of Guru Nanak and Bhai Lalo

Guru Nanak was travelling around the country. In one town his custom was always to stay with a poor, but honest carpenter called Bhai Lalo. On one occasion while he was there, Guru Nanak was invited by a very rich local man to have a meal with him. Guru Nanak was important and the rich man could not understand why Nanak didn't want to eat rich food with rich people.

"Why don't you like my delicious cakes and prefer to eat your friend Lalo's dry bread?" he asked.

"Why do you want to give me such an expensive meal?" asked Guru Nanak.

"For me it is nothing, a tiny part of my wealth, don't worry about it," said the rich man.

"The food my friend Lalo gives me is a big sacrifice for him but he does it because he is my friend. He works hard for it and he provides for me with love. You will never make such a sacrifice for me, that is why I prefer my friend Lalo's dry bread," Guru Nanak replied.

Guru Nanak continued to stay and eat with Bhai Lalo.

The rich man went away and thought about what Guru Nanak had said and became more understanding about the importance of honest work.

Sharing Food Planning Sheet

1. Food choices - following work done earlier in the unit or through sessions in health education on food preferences and intolerances, pupils should consider dietary requirements and faith rules that will affect the experience that they and their guests can share together, catering for everyone, then plan your menu and shopping list.
2. Design, make and send your invitations.
3. Plan the venue and wet weather contingency plans as necessary.
4. Purchase and prepare foods, table coverings, table decorations etc.
5. Write some thank you thoughts to say about the foods that will be shared and the company of the people with which the food is shared.
6. Share the occasion, considering the enjoyment of all.

Tidy up.

Weddings

What this unit contains	This unit provides an opportunity to find out about weddings as part of a number of focuses on change and the cycle of life across Key Stages 1 and 2. As they work through the unit, in relation to the faiths studied, pupils will examine the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ways of celebrating (What do people do?) • The story (Who is it all about and the feelings the ceremony demonstrates) • The community (Which wider community's celebration is this?) • The symbols (Why do they do that?) • The inner meaning (What is it really about?) Pupils should each study weddings in the Christian tradition and that of one other faith or belief from Hinduism, Humanism, Judaism or Sikhism, with all of these covered across the class. Teachers need to emphasise that there are many family experiences and many ways that people choose to live – this unit will focus on the choice of marrying a partner and setting up a home together with a ceremony that marks the promises made to each other. Teachers need to be sensitive to the experience of pupils whose parents' marriages have not lasted or who have different family patterns.

Session 2. Key Question: What is a wedding?

Learning objectives	A T 1	A T 2	Suggested teaching activities	Sensitivities, points to note, resources
Pupils should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • know that growing up sometimes involves deciding to marry someone; • know that the celebration is called a wedding; • understand that a wedding is sometimes celebrated in a faith community; • understand that a wedding is a way for a family to celebrate a change in the lives of two people. 	✓ ✓ ✓ ✓ ✓	✓ ✓ ✓ ✓	Recap with the children the special times explored in the last session and share some of their work. Talk about the journey of life and introduce the idea that a wedding is also a special time of celebration. What is a wedding? Ask the class if they have been to any weddings. Make a list of what they think happens during a wedding. Explain that sometimes people get married in a civil service and sometimes in a place of worship, if possible link to examples of weddings attended by members of the class. Look at various pictures of a Christian wedding or watch one of the Christian wedding services taking place in the BBC Active DVD, freezing the film as necessary. Discuss with children what is happening in these pictures and how people are feeling during the ceremony. What are the key ways in which people celebrate weddings? Do they have special clothes or eat special food? Do they give gifts or send cards? Make a class record organising information about a wedding using the headings introduced in the previous lesson: Who is it all about? (i.e. the couple getting married) What did the people do? Why did they do it? Whose celebration was it? What was it really about? (i.e. telling everyone that you are changing your life as individuals and becoming a family)	Resources Photos of traditional Christian weddings. Session 3 and 4. Key Question: What happens in a Christian wedding?

Learning objectives	A T 1	A T 2	Suggested teaching activities	Sensitivities, points to note, resources
Pupils should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • know that Christians celebrate a wedding with their family, friends and the wider Christian community; • know what happens during a traditional Christian wedding; • know some of the symbols of a Christian wedding and understand their meaning; • understand that a Christian wedding is celebrating the story of a relationship and asking God to bless it. 	✓ ✓ ✓ ✓	✓ ✓ ✓	During these two sessions pupils will find out more about Christian weddings. With the class recall what they saw on the video clip from the previous lesson. Explain that historically the bridegroom had to ask permission of the bride’s father to ask her to marry him. When this had happened and the bride had agreed to get married, the couple are ‘engaged’. Then they could prepare for their wedding. Talk about the preparations that pupils think will be needed for a wedding. Who will need to be invited? Where will it be held? Visit a church to see the place where a wedding might take place or invite in a Minister to talk about the preparations that take place before the wedding. Ask the Minister to discuss what happened during the wedding service, particularly the promises that are made and the symbolism of the ring. Discuss with pupils what the Christian wedding is really about. Talk about the vows that are made. They give the couple the opportunity to make a promise to each other about their love. They do this in front of their family and friends and God. Either: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • act out parts of the wedding • suggest the promises that pupils feel the couple should make to each other • Organise the class into groups to research one other faith or belief for in the next lesson. 	Resources Bride magazines Pictures from catalogues or magazines of engagement rings, wedding rings, wedding clothes. Notes for Teachers Hindu Weddings

A Hindu wedding ceremony is the second of the four Ashrams. Each Ashram has specific duties or dharma that a person must follow. The Grihasta Ashram is known as household life and for taking an active role in the care and protection of one's family and responsibility to society. Wedding ceremonies in the UK are traditionally conducted in the ancient language, Sanskrit and brief translations can be given by the priest.

The pre-wedding ceremonies include an engagement, (involving Vagdhana, an oral agreement). A Lagna Patra, a written declaration, and arrival of the marriage party at the bride's residence, often in the form of a marriage procession. The post-marriage ceremonies involve welcoming the bride to her new home.

An important thing to note is that despite the fact that the modern Hinduism is based on the Puja, the worship of devas as enshrined in the Puranas. A Hindu marriage ceremony is essentially a Vedic yajña (a fire-sacrifice). The primary witness of a Hindu marriage is the fire-deity (or the Sacred Fire) Agni dev, and by law and by tradition, no Hindu marriage is deemed complete unless in the presence of the Sacred Fire, seven encirclements have been made around it by the bride and the groom together.

IMPORTANT MARRIAGE CEREMONIES: Hindu marriage ceremonies vary in different regions and according to family traditions. The major ceremonies are the following.

- Ganesh Puja - Invoking Lord Ganesh to remove obstacles.
- Agni Puja - Evoking the holy fire as a witness and seeking his blessings.
- Kanyádána - Giving away the bride to the groom. Of many auspicious charities.

Giving your daughter in marriage is considered one of the most auspicious. As a condition for offering his daughter for marriage, the father of the bride requests a promise from the groom for assisting the bride in realizing their spiritual and material duties. The groom makes the promises by repeating them three times.

- Mangalsutra – Tying of holy necklace on bride.
- Saptapadi/Saat Phere – The Seven Holy Steps circling the fire.
- Īláróhana – Bride steps on the stone.

The ceremonies involve the Pandit (priest) chanting various prayers and mantras. Saat phere is an important part of the wedding ceremony, undertaken by the bride and the groom around a sacred fire. Saat means seven and Phere means circumambulation. The vows taken in front of Agnidev, the fire God, who acts both as a witness and one who offers his blessings. The vows or promises are considered sacred and unbreakable. The bride and groom circumambulate the fire seven times reciting the following prayers:

1. With the first step, the couple asks God for plenty of pure and nourishing food. They promise to share this with the less fortunate.
2. With the second step, the couples pray to give them the mental, physical and spiritual strength to lead a healthy life. They promise to share their joys and sorrows.
3. The third step is for preserving wealth, prosperity and virtuous, noble and heroic children. They promise to live with honour and respect.
4. With the fourth step, they pray for attainment of happiness and harmony by mutual love and trust between themselves and within the family including, respect for elders.
5. With the fifth step, they pray for the welfare of all living beings in the Universe. They promise to protect and give in charity to the vulnerable in society, including children and the elderly.
6. With the sixth step, they pray for a long, happy life and
